

Let's Light up your Home!

04/06/2023

We are pleased to announce to customers and friends of PVE the addition of our new electrical team! Led by Dan Collette, founder, and previous owner of Colbro Electrical, the team is ready to help resolve any electrical system questions or concerns. In addition to every day electrical repair, our team offers services including: replacement of aluminum wiring, ceiling fan installation/repair, outlet repairs, surge protection, and home safety inspections. Your safety is our top priority, and we are excited to work with our customers in this new capacity!

From problems to projects, your comfort is our concern.
